BARBARA DENNERLEIN DUO

Barbara Dennerlein started playing organ at the age of eleven. Just a few years later, aged fifteen, she performed regularly at local jazz clubs. With her brilliant playing technique (she is one of the very few organists who play a pedal bass) she created an innovative and distinctive style. She has recorded and performed with exceptional musical personalities such as Randy Brecker, Roy Hargrove, David Sanchez and Joe Zawinul among many others.
