BENNY GREEN TRIO

Benny Green grew up in Berkely, California. He began classical studies at age 7, and by 12 he was playing Jazz. Benny moved to New York in 1983, where he worked wich Betty Carter for four years and with Art Blakey from 1987 to 1989. In 1989 he left Art Blakey's band to prove himself. He then worked with Freddie Hubbard and Ray Brown, through whom he has picked up an appreciation for one of his greatest idols, Oscar Peterson!
